NUMB. 431.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From MONDAY June 21, to MONDAY June 28, 1742.

LONDON, March 9.

Extract of a private Letter from Stockholm.

THERE is no Convention ſigned, nor Preliminaries ſettled as yet between this Court and that of Ruſſia: General Lawenhaupt and General Keith only agreed upon a Suſpenſion of Arms. M. Nolcken will ſet out in a few Days for Finland, in order to act in concert with Baron Hopkens, who is already gone thither, in regard to a Peace. We do not know whether they will be able to ſucceed in their Commiſſion. Hitherto the Court of Petersburgh does not liſten to any conſiderable Reſtitution. On the other Hand, there is Reaſon to believe that a Peace between theſe two Powers may poſſibly not be concluded 'till the Partition of the late Emperor's Succeſſion is ſettled. Preparations are making for opening the Campaign with Vigour in caſe the Negociations in Finland prove fruitleſs. Twenty Ships of the Line are fitting up at Carelſcroon. We give Fifty Crowns enliſting Money to a Sailor, and yet find it a hard Matter to get any: Thoſe poor People ſeem terrified at the Hardſhips which their Countrymen endur'd on board the Fleet laſt Year. Ten Thouſand Foot have received Orders to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march againſt the 15th of next Month. The Cavalry have received the like Orders. Except the Three firſt Perſons in the Miniſtry, no Body knows whether theſe Troops are deſtin'd for Finland or for Germany. This occaſions various Conjectures, and the Publick hope, from certain Circumſtances, that the Crown of Sweden may recover the Dutchies of Bremen and Verden. There is as good Underſtanding between this Court and that of Berlin as can be wiſh'd for. The Treaties between them have not only been renew'd, but the King of Pruſſia has alſo made two conſiderable Remittances hither. Count Gyllenbourg, Brother to the Prime Miniſter, is come back from Paris, and has brought with him 100,000 Ducats. The Miniſtry ſeem to be exactly inform'd of the Deſign of the Duke of Holſtein-Gottorp's Journey to Petersbourg. We take no Manner of Umbrage at the Empreſs of Ruſſia's Deſign to appoint that Prince for her Succeſſor; but as that Diſpoſition muſt naturally remove him from the Crown of Sweden another Prince is already talk'd of, whom the Swedes may poſſibly call to it. Had it not been for the Revolution in Ruſſia, the Succeſſion to this Throne ſeem'd to be ſecured to the Duke of Holſtein: The Order of the Peaſants earneſtly demanded that Prince, and would have had this Affair entirely ſettled before the laſt Dyet broke up.

Orders are juſt iſſued for laying an Embargo in all the Ports of this Kingdom, in order to take up the Shipping for tranſporting a Body of Troops.

The Spaniſh Ambaſſador, M. del Puerto, acts in concert with the French Miniſter in every Thing.

Our Miniſtry do not ſhew any greater Concern for carrying the Glory of the Nation to the higheſt pitch, than they do for propagating Commerce, and improving Manufactures, which are Things ſeldom mention'd among the great Exploits of Statesmen. Upon their Repreſentation the King has determin'd to cauſe two Canals to be made, which when finiſh'd will be of infinite Conſequence to the Trade of this Kingdom. The firſt is to extend from the Lake of Vener to the River of Gottenbourg, and the other from the ſame Lake to the Town of Orebroe. Commiſſaries are actually appointed to take a View of the Country, in order afterwards to report the Expence theſe Canals will require. It is plain, that when they are once finiſh'd the whole Trade of the Kingdom will receive infinite Benefit thereby; for Gottenbourg is a Port upon the Ocean, and by the Help of the intended Works there will be a Communication open'd between it and Stockholm.

Hague, March 23. This Morning the third Augmentation of the Forces of the Republick was reſolved upon in the Aſſembly of the States General.

CHARLES-TOWN, June 28

On Friday the 18th Instant Lieutenant Hugh Mackay (who set out after Capt. Howell) arrived here from Georgia, with Dispatches of great Importance from his Excellency General Oglethorpe, to his Honour the Lieutenant Governor of this Province. He came by Land from the Darien, and Saturday last set out on his Return to the Regiment.

Lieut. Mackay confirms the Accounts we had by Capt. Howell

On Friday last came in the Northern Post, with a Confirmation of Capt. Bladewell's engaging a Spanish Brigantine Privateer off Okerecock, on the 26th of May last in the Night, after having chas'd her the whole Day: That the Swift exchang'd three or four Broad-sides with the Privateer, and would certainly have taken her, had they not shot away her Main and Fore stays, so that they cou'd not work the Vessel, which, with the Darkness of the Night favour'd the Privateer's Escape, and Capt. Bladewell was obliged to put into Wilmington to repair. From whence, we hear, he again sail'd on a Cruise, on Friday the 18th Instant, in order to keep our Coasts clear.

On Saturday sail'd on a Cruise, his Majesty's Ship the Rose, of 24 Guns, Capt. Thomas Frankland, Commander, in Quest of a Spanish Man of War of 40 Guns, fitted out at the Havanna, and double mann'd, on Purpose to take him, and which, 'tis said, is now cruising for him in and near the old Streights of Bahama.

By Capt. Smith from Providence, we hear, that Captain Wimble, had in the old Streigths of Bahama, engaged a very large Spanish Ship from the Havannah, with twenty four Million of Money, and had his left Arm shot off, and that the next Night another pass'd by him, with 18 Million on board.

Thursday last a Negro Fellow, belonging to Mr. Cheesman, was brought to Town, tried, condemn'd and hang'd, for attempting to murder a white Lad.

Friday last fell down to Rebellion Road, the Flamborough Man of War, Capt. Haymor, waiting for one of the Government's Row Gallies, which is preparing to sail on a Cruise with her, off St Augustine.

Copy of a Letter from Mr Wm. Morgan, who was Master of the St Phillip Sloop (one of the Guard Vessels of Georgia) at the taking of a Spanish Prize off the Bar of St Augustine, about the beginning of February last, to Capt. Geo: Dunbar of General Oglethorpe's Regiment, who commanded for that Cruise

Sir Fredrica June the 5th 1742

'I seed a parogrouph In the Carolina News paper of Date May the Eigth Wherein they falsely aledge that you 'Neither Did or Could Comand on board of the St Phillip 'Sloop when She took a Spanish prize of Agustine Bar these 'are therefore asureing you that the Whole of that para-'grauph Is Malicious that I had No Concern In Inserting 'the same and itt Is Wholy a Lye William Morgan
